

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	1
1. “Please Allow Me Space”: Race and Faith in the Suburbs	17
2. “A Great Work for God and Humanity”: African American Christian Women and Organized Social Reform	38
3. “The Home Away from Home”: Suffrage, War, and Civic Righteousness	58
4. “Unholy and Unchristian Attitude”: Interracial Dialogue in Segregated Spaces, 1920–1937	82
5. “Putting Real American Ideals in American Life”: Church Women and Electoral Politics	105
6. “Carthage Must Be Destroyed”: Health, Housing, and the New Deal	127
Conclusion: “You Just as Well Die with the Ague as with the Fever”	151
Notes	161
Selected Bibliography	213
Index	235
About the Author	246