

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	xi
1. Introduction	1
Marla Brettschneider, Susan Burgess, and Christine Keating
PART I: BUILDING LGBTQ MOVEMENTS	11
Marla Brettschneider
2. Rethinking GLBT as a Political Category in U.S. Politics	14
Zein Murib
3. Politics outside the Law: Transgender Lives and the Challenge of Legibility	34
B Lee Aultman and Paisley Currah
4. The Treatment and Prevention of HIV Bodies: The Contemporary Politics and Science of a Thirty-Year-Old Epidemic	54
J. Ricky Price
5. Queering Reproductive Justice: Toward a Theory and Praxis for Building Intersectional Political Alliances	72
Kimala Price
6. The “B” Isn’t Silent: Bisexual Communities and Political Activism	89
Charles Anthony Smith, Shawn Schulenberg, and Eric A. Baldwin
7. Embodying Margin to Center: Intersectional Activism among Queer Liberation Organizations	110
Joseph Nicholas DeFilippis and Ben Anderson-Nathe
8. From “Don’t Drop the Soap” to PREA Standards: Reducing Sexual Victimization of LGBT People in the Juvenile and Criminal Justice Systems	134
Sean Cahill
PART II: LGBTQ POLITICS IN THE DISCIPLINE OF POLITICAL SCIENCE	153
Marla Brettschneider
9. Our Stories	157
Angelia R. Wilson

10. The Politics of LGBTQ Politics in APSA: A History (and Its) Lesson(s)	177
Martha Ackelsberg
11. Power, Politics, and Difference in the American Political Science Association: An Intersectional Analysis of the New Orleans Siting Controversy	198
Susan Burgess and Anna Sampaio
12. Where Has the Field Gone? An Investigation of LGBTQ Political Science Research	212
Barry L. Tadlock and Jami K. Taylor
13. Unfulfilled Promises: How Queer Feminist Political Theory Could Transform Political Science	234
Jyl Josephson and Thaís Marques
PART III: LGBTQ POLITICS AND PUBLIC OPINION IN THE UNITED STATES	249
Susan Burgess
14. The How, Why, and Who of LGBTQ “Victory”: A Critical Examination of Change in Public Attitudes Involving LGBTQ People	252
Jeremiah J. Garretson
15. Equality or Transformation? LGBT Political Attitudes and Priorities and the Implications for the Movement	270
Donald P. Haider-Markel and Patrick R. Miller
16. Case Studies of Black Lesbian and Gay Candidates: Winning Identity Politics in the Obama Era	295
Ravi K. Perry and X. Loudon Manley
17. Equality in the House: The Congressional LGBT Equality Caucus and the Substantive Representation of LGBTQ Interests	309
Paul Snell
18. Gay and Lesbian Candidates, Group Stereotypes, and the News Media: An Experimental Design	334
Mandi Bates Bailey and Steven P. Nawara
PART IV: MARRIAGE EQUALITY POLITICS	351
Susan Burgess
19. Marriage Equality: Assimilationist Victory or Pluralist Defeat?	353
Courtenay W. Daum
20. The State of Marriage? How Sociolegal Context Affects Why Same-Sex Couples Marry	374
Ellen Ann Andersen

21. Queer Sensibilities and Other Fagchild Tools Jerry D. Thomas	394
22. You Don't Belong Here, Either: Same-Sex Marriage Politics and LGBT/Q Youth Homelessness Activism in Chicago Jason Stodolka	414
PART V: LGBTQ POLITICS IN GLOBAL CONTEXT Christine Keating	437
23. Political Science and the Study of LGBT Social Movements in the Global South Julie Moreau	439
24. Homonationalism and the Comparative Politics of LGBTQ Rights Miriam Smith	458
25. Top Down, Bottom Up, or Meeting in the Middle? The U.S. Government in International LGBTQ Human Rights Advocacy Cynthia Burack	477
26. Pink Links: Visualizing the Global LGBTQ Network Christina Kiel and Megan E. Osterbur	493
PART VI: QUEER FUTURES Christine Keating	523
27. Whither the LGBTQ Movement in a Post-Civil Rights Era? Gary Mucciaroni	525
28. Scouting for Normalcy: Merit Badges, Cookies, and American Futurity Judy Rohrer	545
29. Queering the Feminist Dollar: A History and Consideration of the Third Wave Fund as Activist Philanthropy Melissa Meade and Rye Young	563
30. Single-Sex Colleges and Transgender Discrimination: The Politics of Checking a "Male" or "Female" Box to Get into College Heath Fogg Davis	580
About the Contributors	599
Index	607