

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: Through the Looking Glass: U.S. Empire through the Lens of Labor History Daniel E. Bender and Jana K. Lipman	1
PART I. SOLIDARITIES AND RESISTANCE
1. The Wages of Empire: Capitalism, Expansionism, and Working-Class Formation Julie Greene	35
2. Revolutionary Currents: Interracial Solidarities, Imperial Japan, and the U.S. Empire Moon-Ho Jung	59
3. The Secret Soldiers' Union: Labor and Soldier Politics in the Philippine Scout Mutiny of 1924 Christopher Capozzola	85
4. The Photos That We Don't Get to See: Sovereignties, Archives, and the 1928 Massacre of Banana Workers in Colombia Kevin Coleman	104
PART II. INTIMACIES IN COLONIAL SPACES
5. Sexual Labor and the U.S. Military Empire: Comparative Analysis of Europe and East Asia Seungsook Moon	137
6. Making Aloha: Lei and the Cultural Labor of Hospitality Vernadette Vicuña Gonzalez	161

PART III. MIGRATION AND MOBILIZING LABOR FOR THE EMPIRE
7. The Advantages of Empire: Chinese Servants and Conflicts over Settler Domesticity in the “White Pacific,” 1870–1900	185
Andrew T. Urban
8. Empire and the Moving Body: Fermin Tobera, Military California, and Rural Space	208
Dorothy B. Fujita-Rony
9. Slavery’s Stale Soil: Indentured Labor, Guestworkers, and the End of Empire	227
Cindy Hahamovitch
PART IV. IMPERIAL LABOR AND CONTROL IN THE TROPICS
10. The Colonization of Antislavery and the Americanization of Empires: The Labor of Autonomy and the Labor of Subordination in Togo and the United States	267
Andrew Zimmerman
11. Progressive Empire: Race and Tropicality in United Fruit’s Central America	289
Jason M. Colby
12. What Is Imperial about Coffee? Rethinking “Informal Empire”	312
Augustine Sedgewick
13. Home Land (In)security: The Labor of U.S. Cold War Military Empire in the Marshall Islands	335
Lauren Hirshberg
About the Contributors	357
Index	361