

CONTENTS

Foreword	x
Charles J. Ogletree, Jr.
Acknowledgments	xv
Introduction: Re-visioning Youth Justice	1
Nancy E. Dowd
PART I. SETTING THE AGENDA
1. Child Well-Being: Toward a Fair and Equitable Public Safety Strategy for the New Century	23
James Bell
PART II. CORE COMPONENTS
2. A Silent Sea Change: The Deinstitutionalization Trend in Juvenile Justice	47
Bart Lubow
3. Starting from a Different Place: The Missouri Model	63
Tim Decker
4. Doing Things Differently: Education as a Vehicle for Youth Transformation and Finland as a Model for Juvenile Justice Reform	86
Peter E. Leone
5. Delinquency, Due Process, and Mental Health: Presuming Youth Incompetency	104
David R. Katner
PART III. ESSENTIAL PERSPECTIVES
6. Why Should We Treat Juvenile Offenders Differently than Adults? It's Not Because the Pie Isn't Fully Baked!	129
Mark R. Fondacaro

7. Lost in Translation No More: Marketing Evidence-Based Policies for Reducing Juvenile Crime 139
Richard E. Redding
8. Building on Advocacy for Girls and LGBT Youth: A Foundation for Liberatory Laws, Policies, and Services for All Youth in the Juvenile Justice System 156
Barbara Fedders
9. Invest Upstream to Promote the Well-Being of LGBT Youth: Addressing Root Causes of Juvenile System Involvement 172
Shannan Wilber

PART IV. CRITICAL ACTORS

10. Correcting Racial Disparities in the Juvenile Justice System: Refining Prosecutorial Discretion 193
Kristin Henning
11. Helping Adolescents Succeed: Assuring a Meaningful Right to Counsel 217
Carlos J. Martinez
12. Fit to Be T(r)ied: Ending Juvenile Transfers and Reforming the Juvenile Justice System 227
Richard Mora and Mary Christianakis
13. Applying J.D.B. v. North Carolina: Toward Ending Legal Fictions and Adopting Effective Police Questioning of Youth 239
Lisa H. Thurau and Sia Henry

PART V. SUPPORT SYSTEMS

14. What If Your Child Were the Next One in the Door? Reimagining the Social Safety Net for Children, Families, and Communities 267
Wendy A. Bach
15. Immigrant Children: Treating Children as Children, Regardless of Their Legal Status 281
Elizabeth M. Frankel

16. Crossover Youth: Youth Should Benefit When the State Is the Parent	296
Robin Rosenberg and Christina L. Spudeas
17. Breaking the School-to-Prison Pipeline: New Models for School Discipline and Community Accountable Schools	301
Kaitlin Banner
18. No More Closed Doors: Ending the Educational Exclusion of Formerly Incarcerated Youth	311
David Domenici and Renagh O’Leary
19. Collateral Consequences of Juvenile Court: Boulders on the Road to Good Outcomes	333
Sue Burrell
About the Contributors	349
Index	353