

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction	1
Corinne T. Field and Nicholas L. Syrett
PART I. AGE IN EARLY AMERICA
1. “Keep Me with You, So That I Might Not Be Damned”: Age and Captivity in Colonial Borderlands Warfare	23
Ann M. Little
2. “Beyond the Time of White Children”: African American Emancipation, Age, and Ascribed Neoteny in Early National Pennsylvania	47
Sharon Braslaw Sundue
PART II. AGE IN THE LONG NINETEENTH CENTURY
3. “If You Have the Right to Vote at 21 Years, Then I Have”: Age and Equal Citizenship in the Nineteenth-Century United States	69
Corinne T. Field
4. A Birthday Like None Other: Turning Twenty-One in the Age of Popular Politics	86
Jon Grinspan
5. Statutory Marriage Ages and the Gendered Construction of Adulthood in the Nineteenth Century	103
Nicholas L. Syrett
6. From Family Bibles to Birth Certificates: Young People, Proof of Age, and American Political Cultures, 1820–1915	124
Shane Landrum
7. “Rendered More Useful”: Child Labor and Age Consciousness in the Long Nineteenth Century	148
James D. Schmidt

8. “A Day Too Late”: Age, Immigration Quotas, and Racial Exclusion Yuki Oda	166
PART III. AGE IN MODERN AMERICA
9. Age and Retirement: Major Issues in the American Experience William Graebner	187
10. “The Proper Age for Suffrage”: Vote 18 and the Politics of Age from World War II to the Age of Aquarius Rebecca de Schweinitz	209
11. “Old Enough to Live”: Age, Alcohol, and Adulthood in the United States, 1970–1984 Timothy Cole	237
12. Age and Identity: Reaching Thirteen in the Lives of American Jews Stuart Schoenfeld	259
13. A Chicana Third Space Feminist Reading of Chican@ Life Cycle Markers Norma E. Cantú	282
14. Delineating Old Age: From Functional Status to Bureaucratic Criteria W. Andrew Achenbaum	301
About the Contributors	321
Index	325