

CONTENTS

Foreword: Meeting the Challenges of Early American Women's History	ix
CAROL BERKIN
Acknowledgments	xi
Introduction: Women in Early America: Crossing Boundaries, Rewriting Histories	1
THOMAS A. FOSTER
1. Doña Teresa de Aguilera y Roche before the Inquisition: The Travails of a Seventeenth-Century Aristocratic Woman in New Mexico	7
RAMÓN A. GUTIÉRREZ
2. "Women Are as Knowing Therein as the Men": Dutch Women in Early America	43
KIM TODT
3. Women as Witches, Witches as Women: Witchcraft and Patriarchy in Colonial North America	66
MATTHEW DENNIS AND ELIZABETH REIS
4. Servant Women and Sex in the Seventeenth-Century Chesapeake	95
BETTY WOOD
5. Rebecca Kellogg Ashley: Negotiating Identity on the Early American Borderlands, 1704–1757	118
JOY A. J. HOWARD
6. Womanly Masters: Gendering Slave Ownership in Colonial Jamaica	139
CHRISTINE WALKER

7. Women at the Crossroads: Trade, Mobility, and Power in Early French America and Detroit	159
KAREN L. MARRERO
8. The Agrarian Village World of Indian Women in the Ohio River Valley	186
SUSAN SLEEPER-SMITH
9. Loyalist Women in British New York City, 1776–1783	210
RUMA CHOPRA
10. “I Knew That If I Went Back to Virginia, I Should Never Get My Liberty”: Ona Judge Staines, the President’s Runaway Slave	225
ERICA ARMSTRONG DUNBAR
11. “The Need of Their Genius”: A Women’s Revolution in Early America	246
MARY C. KELLEY
Afterword: Women in Early America	271
JENNIFER L. MORGAN
About the Contributors	275
Index	279