

CONTENTS

Global Mixed Race: An Introduction	vii
Stephen Small and Rebecca C. King-O’Riain
PART I: SOCIETIES WITH ESTABLISHED POPULATIONS OF MIXED DESCENT
1. Multiraciality and Census Classification in Global Perspective	1
Ann Morning
2. “Rider of Two Horses”: Eurafricans in Zambia	16
Juliette Bridgette Milner-Thornton
3. “Split Me in Two”: Gender, Identity, and “Race Mixing” in the Trinidad and Tobago Nation	44
Rhoda Reddock
4. In the Laboratory of Peoples’ Friendship: Mixed People in Kazakhstan from the Soviet Era to the Present	68
Saule K. Ualiyeva and Adrienne L. Edgar
5. Competing Narratives: Race and Multiraciality in the Brazilian Racial Order	91
G. Reginald Daniel and Andrew Michael Lee
6. Antipodean Mixed Race: Australia and New Zealand	119
Farida Fozdar and Maureen Perkins

7. Negotiating Identity Narratives among Mexico's
Cosmic Race 144

Christina A. Sue

PART II: PLACES WITH NEWER POPULATIONS OF MIXED DESCENT

8. Multiraciality and Migration: Mixed-Race American
Okinawans, 1945–1972 167

Lily Anne Yumi Welty

9. The Curious Career of the One-Drop Rule: Multiraciality and Membership in Germany Today 188

Miriam Nandi and Paul Spickard

10. Capturing “Mixed Race” in the Decennial UK Censuses:
Are Current Approaches Sustainable in the Age of Globalization and Superdiversity? 213

Peter J. Aspinall and Miri Song

11. Exporting the Mixed-Race Nation: Mixed-Race Identities
in the Canadian Context 238

Minelle Mahtani, Dani Kwan-Lafond, and Leanne Taylor

- Global Mixed Race: A Conclusion 263

Rebecca C. King-O’Riain

- Bibliography* 281

- About the Contributors* 315

- Index* 321