

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction: Learning to Manage	1
PART I: ELEMENTS OF A SYSTEM
1. A History of Reform: Colonialism, Public Health, and Privatized Care	31
2. Regulating a Runaway Train: Everyone Is Replaceable	61
3. New Consumer Citizens: Life Histories	89
PART II: THE BUSINESS OF CARE: MARKET VALUES AND MANAGEMENT STRATEGIES
4. Quality: Managing by Numbers	125
5. Complaints: The Wrong Glucometer . . . Again!	151
6. Market Values: Partnering and Choice	179
Conclusion: Ungovernability as Market Rule	209
Appendix 1: A Methodological Appendix	231
Appendix 2: Interview Descriptions	241
Notes	253
Works Cited	277
Index	295
About the Author	299